Meera — Rashi chart (D1)

Guna Milan at a glance

28 / 36 Good

Before cancellation: 21 — Bhakoot: the rashi lords Venus and Mercury are mutual natural friends

Within the conventional 25–32 band.

The 18/25/33 thresholds are a widely used convention, not a measurement. Astrologers routinely override a low total when the heavier kootas are clean.

The eight kootas, one by one

KOOTA	ARJUN	MEERA	POINTS
Varna	Vaishya	Vaishya	1 / 1
Vashya	Chatushpada	Manava	1 / 2
Tara (Dina)	2 · Sampat	9 · Ati-Mitra	3 / 3
Yoni	Serpent	Tiger	2 / 4

SAMPLE

KOOTA	ARJUN	MEERA	POINTS
Graha Maitri	Venus	Mercury	5 / 5
Gana	Manushya	Rakshasa	1 / 6
Bhakoot	5	9	7 / 7
Nadi	Antya	Madhya	8 / 8

Varna — 1 / 1

What it measures: Spiritual and working temperament, from the Moon sign's varna. Full point when the groom's varna is not below the bride's.

In these two charts: Vaishya groom, Vaishya bride — the groom's varna is not below the bride's, which is what this koota asks.

Vashya — 1 / 2

What it measures: Mutual attraction and influence — which sign "draws" the other.

In these two charts: Chatushpada groom with a Manava bride — partial sway, 1 of 2.

Tara (Dina) — 3 / 3

What it measures: Health and wellbeing, from the count between the two birth nakshatras; the 3rd, 5th and 7th taras are unfavourable.

In these two charts: Sampat (2nd) counting from the groom's star and Ati-Mitra (9th) counting from the bride's — both auspicious taras.

Yoni — 2 / 4

What it measures: Physical and intimate compatibility; each nakshatra has an animal yoni, and sworn-enemy animals score zero.

In these two charts: Serpent groom with a Tiger bride — neutral yonis.

Graha Maitri — 5 / 5

What it measures: Friendship between the lords of the two Moon signs — the mental wavelength of the couple.

In these two charts: Venus rules the groom's Moon and Mercury the bride's; Venus treats Mercury as a friend and Mercury treats Venus as a friend.

Gana — 1 / 6

What it measures: Temperament: Deva (divine), Manushya (human) or Rakshasa (fierce).

In these two charts: Manushya groom against a Rakshasa bride is the classic Gana mismatch: friction expected over behavior under stress.

Bhakoot — 7 / 7

What it measures: The relative placement of the two Moon signs. The 2/12, 5/9 and 6/8 positions form Bhakoot dosha, cancelled when the sign lords are the same or friends.

In these two charts: A 5/9 Bhakoot dosha, cancelled because the rashi lords Venus and Mercury are mutual natural friends. Points restored.

Dosha cancelled: the rashi lords Venus and Mercury are mutual natural friends

Nadi — 8 / 8

What it measures: The highest-weighted koota, tied to health and progeny. The same nadi for both is Nadi dosha, with classical cancellations for the same sign/different nakshatra or same nakshatra/different pada.

In these two charts: Antya nadi (Kapha) against Madhya nadi (Pitta) — different, which is what this koota wants.

MANGLIK DOSH

Arjun: Manglik (mild). Mars falls in the 8th from the Lagna, the 12th from the Moon. Manglik by the Lagna and Moon readings. Classical relief in this chart: Mars is in its own sign (Aries).

SAMPLE

Meera: Manglik (mild). Mars falls in the 4th from Venus. Manglik by the Venus reading.

For the pair: balanced. Both charts are Manglik. The standard reading is that the dosha is mutually cancelled — this is the reason Manglik natives are conventionally matched together.

Severity aside, whether Mangal dosha should carry the weight it does is itself disputed — several respected lineages hold that it applies only from the Lagna.

Key planetary points of the two charts

	ARJUN	MEERA
Lagna and its lord	Virgo — lord Mercury	Aquarius — lord Saturn
Moon sign and its lord	Taurus — lord Venus	Virgo — lord Mercury
Venus	Cancer, house 11	Pisces, house 2
Mars	Aries, house 8	Gemini, house 5
Jupiter	Cancer, house 11	Virgo, house 8
7th house (marriage) and its lord	Pisces — lord Jupiter in house 11	Leo — lord Sun in house 12

- Moon-sign lords Venus (Arjun) and Mercury (Meera): Venus counts Mercury as a friend; Mercury counts Venus as a friend.
- Lagna lords Mercury (Arjun) and Saturn (Meera): Mercury counts Saturn as neutral; Saturn counts Mercury as a friend.
- 7th-house lords Jupiter (Arjun) and Sun (Meera): Jupiter counts Sun as a friend; Sun counts Jupiter as a friend.
- Arjun's Moon falls in the 4th house counted from Meera's Lagna.
- Meera's Moon falls in the 1st house counted from Arjun's Lagna.

Friend, neutral and enemy are the classical natural (naisargika) relationships the Graha Maitri koota itself uses. The lagna-based lines need a birth time and are left out for a chart cast without one.

and the combustion of Venus or Jupiter excluded. They are the same for every couple — not a personal muhurat — so fix the hour with your family priest.

About this report

Written by our rule engine from the two birth charts: the Ashtakoot tables, the Mangal dosha rules and the almanac above, exactly as the free matching tool computes them. No AI model writes or changes any of it. Ashtakoot is a traditional convention, not a measurement, and it should not be the deciding input on a marriage.
